

Dying-Minutes Frenzy-Phase Satanic Persecution of Christians goes global

“the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time” Rev. 12:12c Picture of Islamic State foot soldiers about to slaughter 21 Christian Copts earlier in February this year.

As the Rapture of the Church becomes imminent, the devil has cast off all camouflage and is on a full-blown fury against the children of God - worldwide. Yet for all the incredible pains and agony, the Holy Spirit is proving Himself true to His words, keeping and sustaining the saints in their dark but glorious days.

We begin this short chronicle from America, currently embroiled in a desperate bitter struggle as anti-/post- Christian forces seek to erase all Christian legacy and influence from “God’s own country.”

On Thursday October 1 in the town of Umpqua, SW Oregon, one of the multitudes of disillusioned youths in that country, seizing the opportunity of his school being one of the designated “gun-free zones,” smuggled in his own firearms and went on a shooting spree. After the initial rounds of random spraying (he had about 4 different firearms and ample time to operate without being challenged), the 26-year old lad lined the students up, and announced he would be sending those who profess Christianity to meet God straight away. (Israel News)

The beauty from this extremely tragic story is that no fewer than 10 young people refused to deny they belong to Jesus Christ, even when they knew what would follow such profession! While those who declared not being Christians got shot on their legs, the faithful Christ-lovers are now in the bosom of their Lord in Heaven.

Next we move to the hot bed of raw unprecedented persecution of Christians. In the middle east, apparently under a gush of satanic inspiration, Islamic extremists are dreaming up and inflicting horrific pain and suffering upon fellow humans, simply because those people insist they love and would only confess Jesus as Lord and Savior.

As reported by Christian Aid Mission, on Friday August 28 near Aleppo, Syria, the Islamic State “tortured, mutilated, publicly raped, beheaded and crucified 12 Christians for saying they “would never renounce Christ” for Muhammad.” → page 2

Buhari’s Visit to the US (From our blog)

As President Muhammadu Buhari begins his state visit to the US today (20/7/15), we have good reasons to be full of prayers - both for the President and the country as a whole. There could be no doubts that US President, Barack Obama considers this “Pay back” time for his role and supports during the Nigerian election. We are about to receive our bills!

According to news report, while President Buhari would have settled for a two-day visit, the Americans are coaxing him to stay a day longer. And he would be lodging at the famous Blair House, all at the expense of America’s taxpayers. But we do know that there are no free lunches, least of all places in the United States. Blair house is right across the White House, and PMB staying there as Obama’s personal guest would facilitate even more informal meetings, hand-twisting and whatever! → pg 3

LivingScience Foundation (LSF) coming

From the roots of Church Arise!, by the grace of God, comes the LivingScience Foundation (LSF). This professional NGO platform will address Environmental Health issues from an overtly Christian creationist perspective. The World Health Organization believes that about 25% of world’s disease burdens – cancer, cardiovascular, kidney problems, etc - is directly attributable to Environmental-Health issues. Most NGOs that address these issues (and they are mostly foreign) traditionally do so from an evolutionary perspective – ultimately treating the earth as a goddess to be worshipped. The up-coming UN Agenda 2030 (revision of the infamous Agenda 21) which is expected to, for all practical purposes, usher in a One World Government (see Globalist Gods’ Power Lust - is based directly on such premises → pg 2

While LSF will free CA! to more effectively concentrate on doctrinal and faith issues, Christian persecutions, and the likes, LSF will do more than talk and teach on Environmental Health, and Creation Science issues. With its "occupying till the Lord comes" outlook, the LSF will actively engage in Scientific Research, Communication, and Advocacy. To the glory of God, a Board of Trustees of eminent Nigerian Christian leaders who are passionate about these issues will be inaugurated very soon. It will be chaired by Pastor Ezekiel A. Odeyemi of the RCCG. Please visit our website: www.lsf-nigeria.org for more details. We earnestly covet your prayers and supports as we embark on this David versus Goliath mission to make God's way known on earth and bring His saving health to all nations (Psa 67:2)

Victory For Farmer Paul Francois In Lawsuit Against Monsanto

The Newsletter for the Health and Environment Alliance for Sept 2015 reports: "Great news for Paul Francois, a large scale French cereal farmer who has won an eight year legal battle against Monsanto, after he was intoxicated by one of their products" (a herbicide) in 2004. Monsato, one of Bill Gates outlets, is also the world's leader in producing genetically modified crops

In the last edition of CA! we brought to your attention the response of farmers in Ghana to genetically-modified seeds, based on hard realities experienced, rather than mere flowery propaganda. Unfortunately, hardly is there any awareness of the great issues at stake on this matter in beloved country Nigeria. Thank God, the LivingScience Foundation is here!

"In the view of such harmony in the cosmos which I, with my limited human mind, am able to recognize, there are yet people who say there is no God. But what makes me really angry is that they quote me for support of such views. – Albert Einstein (The Expanded Quotable Einstein, Princeton University, p 214)"

Christian Aid provided a gory description of some of the mutilation and torture that preceded the eventual crucifixion: "The jihadis took one group in front of a large crowd. They cut off the fingertips of a 12-year-old boy, who steadfastly refused to submit to Islam. They "severely beat him, telling his father they would stop the torture only if he, the father, returned to Islam." He refused, so they "also tortured and beat him and the two other ministry workers. The three men and the boy then met their deaths in crucifixion."

Refusal to renounce the Lord Jesus Christ for Islam also led to the public rape of two women (aged 29 and 33) before a large crowd. The women "continued to pray during the ordeal, leading the ISIS militants to beat them all the more furiously" "As the two women and the six men knelt before they were beheaded, they were all praying."

Quoting the ministry director, ChristianAids reported; "One of the women looked up and seemed to be almost smiling as she said, 'Jesus!'"

Similar stories from Uganda, Nigeria, Tatarstan (Russia), Uzbekistan, Gaza Strip, are compiled by Raymond Ibrahim, author of "Crucified Again: Exposing Islam's New War on Christians," summarizing recent incidents of "Muslim individuals, mobs, terrorists, and governments all around the world trying to force Christians to convert, sometimes on pain of death"

In Vol. 17 Qtr 4 we reported the story of four children beheaded in Iraq for refusing to deny Jesus. The children, all under 15, had insisted, 'No, we love Jesus [Yesua]. We have always loved Jesus. We have always followed Jesus. Jesus has always been with us.'

The IS is not hiding its ultimate agenda. In a video released in April showing the massacre of Christians in Libya, a masked IS spokesman addressed "Christians everywhere":

"We say to Christians everywhere, the Islamic State will expand, with Allah's permission. And it will reach you even if you are in fortified strongholds. So whoever enters Islam will have security... But whoever refuses will see nothing from us but the edge of a spear. The men will be killed and the children will be enslaved, and their wealth will be taken as booty. This is the judgment of Allah and His Messenger."

Realistically speaking, it is not likely we will be seeing any drastic change in the on-going incredible satan-inspired end-time persecution of Christians – till the Lord comes for His Bride!

In an article in Breitbart on May 19, 2015, Thomas D. Williams quoted Bishop John McAreavey, the Chair of the Council for Justice and Peace of the Irish Catholic Bishops' Conference, as saying "statistics show that the situation of Christian persecution in the world is far more dire than most people understand." Estimating that 11 Christians are murdered every hour somewhere on the planet, Bishop McAreavey called the breadth and scale of the suffering of Christians "unprecedented."

Quoting the International Society for Human Rights, a non-religious organization, Bishop McAreavey pointed out that “80 percent of all acts of religious discrimination in the world today are directed against Christians.” He further noted with dismay what he called “a reluctance, including on the part of Christian based international aid agencies, to give direct support to minority religious communities, including to the Christian Churches.”

CA! is much aware that some Christians feel stories like these should be suppressed for the sake of “religious harmony”. As championed by Robert McManus, Roman Catholic Bishop of Worcester, Massachusetts, (February 8, 2013) “Talk about extreme, militant Islamists and the atrocities that they have perpetrated globally might undercut the positive achievements that we Catholics have attained in our inter-religious dialogue with devout Muslims.”

However CA! is committed to honouring the memory and courage of our brothers and sisters callously abused and murdered simply for their faith in, and love for Jesus Christ. At the same time, we hope to encourage the rest of the Church to learn from these acts, and take appropriate actions strengthening themselves in the LORD and endeavoring to prevent their own communities from degenerating to “Pergamus, where Satan dwells” (Rev 2:13) - if they can at all still do that.

It would appear that one reason we’ve had a resurgence of Boko Haram activities since May 29 would be to keep PMB on the edge. As it were, seeking America’s help against Boko Haram would need to top his list of pleas to Uncle Sam.

And at what price? We’ve had already some uncomfortable policy somersaults that clearly indicate our President might be having tough times sticking with his lovely “I belong to everybody, and to nobody” beautiful pronouncement. Take for instance the order that all military checkpoints be immediately removed - with almost immediate compliance effected in full public glare. Only for the NSA to come back 2 weeks later claiming no such instruction was ever issued by the President! How then do we discount those who insist that the “stuffs” that needed to be moved across the nation had already been moved in the window of opportunity afforded by the military-off-the-road order! And most curiously, Boko Haram, who in the dying days of the Jonathan administration reportedly had resorted to executing uncooperating female captives

by stoning, to save precious bullets, has now bounced back into reckoning fully armed.

Similarly, even General Yakubu Gowon had to strongly come in defense of the Nigerian Army before there was a little dousing of the threats by PMB’s spokespersons to roast the Army leadership, based on the Amnesty International’s hurriedly packaged report demonizing the Nigeria’s military. Interestingly, as the President goes into the shark-infested waters of our Shylock western friends, their media is giving the Boko Haram palaver, (the Amnesty International version) maximum publicity. The Deutch Welle for instance tonight (20/7/15) brought out from its archive a major documentary on Boko Haram – the stark opposite of a similar documentary on the operations of German and American soldiers in Afghanistan, which the station had broadcasted a few weeks ago.

So what’s in stock for us as the President spends the next three days in Obama’s den? Obama had already indicated he would be forcing the homosexual issue down Nigeria’s throat. That’s one pill President Buhari would almost certainly find too bitter to swallow. But then how does he refuse that, and also go on to refuse America’s desire to take over our military establishment with its infamous African High Command dream – especially as we would be asking for help to fight Boko Haram? And it is almost certain that the President would have to embrace Obama’s incredibly malicious nuclear deal with Iran. Even while admitting that Iran is committed to the annihilation of Israel, Obama claims there is no other option than accept to, at the very best, delay Iran’s production of nuclear weapon by 10 years while pacifying her with generous financial largesse that would most certainly only help consolidate the Mullah’s stranglehold on the country in the meantime. PMB is also likely to find the Iranian deal inexorably connected with support for Palestinian State – even when it is clear that such a State would sooner than later be taken over by some of the Arab terrorist groups bent on wiping Israel off the map. Gaza is a clear demonstration of this reality. All these are going to be tough issues that would pitch PMB literally between the devil and the deep blue sea!

In our humble opinion, the next few days are going to be critical to how events would play out in the next four years in the country. For instance, the choice of cabinet ministers – and all that goes with that - might be significantly affected. For all his sincerity and honesty of purpose, the late President Yar Adua had his administration literally crippled by the appointment of Mr Andoaka as his justice minister – obviously at the instance of one James Onanefe Ibori. The rest is history. We pray President Buhari returns relatively unscathed, and that the unfolding Divine Agenda for our country is not truncated at this very delicate moment.

Endtime Sexual Perversion brings the world back to the days of Lot and Noah

Homosexuality and Sexual Pervertion continue to make significant in-route into the world, and there is nowhere this is most visible than the United States where President Barack Obama is furiously pushing the agenda as he enters the last half of his 2nd term.

In September, the Supreme Court ruled that homosexual marriages is legal in all states of the country, arguing that sexual preferences of people is just as fundamental as the colour of their skin! Bible-believing Christians are already feeling the heat, as for example in the case of Prison chaplains in Kentucky, who are now required to sign a declaration that they would never mention homosexuality as sin in their counseling of young prison inmates, in order to be allowed to continue with their ministry. (see www.foxnews.com/opinion/2015/08/11/chaplains-banned-from-preaching-that-homosexuality-is-sin.html)

But the abominable acts of homosexuality is only part of a series of sexual sins on a slippery slope, beginning from pornography and flirting, and ending in horrible things like bestiality. While the vast majority of Americans still believe that homosexuality is wrong and sinful, the other sins in the series are often overlooked. For instance, it was revealed that one pornography website alone in the US, garners some 4.4 billion page views a month!

Similarly, it was revealed that the Ashley Madison adultery website which was recently hacked had some 37 million subscribers! The Canada-based site owned by Avid Life Media shamelessly invites married people in particular to “cheat” on their partners and have all manner of sexual interactions with strangers. It has as its slogan, “Life is short. Have an affair!” Many were shocked at the prominent names of people at the high and medium strata of society that were revealed as subscribers at Ashley Madison. A number of them, including Pastor John Gibson of New Orleans, ended up committing suicides, not being able to bear the shame of being outed. Hundreds of other Pastors resigned their posts on account of being on the List.

Another pointer to the absolute rottenness and decadence in society, as mirrored in US Society, are the series of revelation that the massive abortion provider, Planned Parenthood, makes brisk big business, selling body parts from aborted babies. Several exposure, made by hidden video cameras, have kept emerging, and there seems no end yet in sight. (see the ref here for example)/

The Bible is clear that the end times will bring with it considerable perils. From those who simply sympathise to those who actually practice and eventually those who promote these sexual perversion, it’s all a series of little steps down the slippery slope, beginning with little compromises on Biblical doctrines. Every wise Bible-believing Christian must therefore learn to continually “take heed, watch, and pray” (Mk 13:33) in order not to be casualty of these seemingly innocuous tsunamis.

Especially given the well-known fact that moslem migrants are not particularly inclined to integrating into the culture of their host western nations. Even right now, the Shelters for the immigrants are already being governed by Sharia laws, and Christians, Kurds and other minorities there are being threatened with beheadings! To get details of horrors awaiting Europe from the impending Islamic take-over, see www.gatestoneinstitute.org/6473/europe-migration-crisis-welfare or the article by Avigdor Lieberman. (www.ynetnews.com/home/0,7340,L-3084,00.html).

But Islam itself is far from being in any rejoicing mood as the fulfillment of Muammar Ghaddafi’s prediction of Islamic take-over of Western civilization “without swords, without guns” takes concrete shape. Islam had its own fair share of historic-size calamities visiting in the month of September. Of course, the forced migration from moslem land into Europe was at the behest of ISIS, not mainstream Islam. Apart from the hundreds of infiltrating Jihadists, it’s certain that most of the displaced Syrians would have preferred living at peace in Damascus than seeking refuge in Europe.

The real calamity for Islam however, would be the 9-11 thunderstorm event. On the infamous date of September 11, a sudden massive thunderstorm maneuvered a huge construction crane operated by a bin Laden company, which crashed thereafter on no other place than the holiest shrine of Islam, the Grand Mosque at Mecca. Strange irony indeed! It was in the heat of preparations for the annual Hajj and 111 lives were lost, not counting the maimed and injured.

Unfortunately, the worst had not yet come for Islam in the month of September. The Hajj proper was to witness an unprecedented stampede that resulted in well over a thousand deaths! The pain is sharply felt here in Nigeria where 64 people have been confirmed dead, and another 244 yet unaccounted for.

In the opinion of CA!, one of the most important reasons to thank God for the vision of the Redeemed Christian Church of God in developing her new 3 km by 3 km Auditorium, is the enhanced opportunity to control the multitudes who periodically converge in multiples of millions (at least thrice a year) to worship there. People who have no idea of what it takes to manage such a crowd could sit and write theoretical thrash on how money is being “squandered” on such supposedly fanciful facility! We trust that the good LORD Who has helped His Church thus far will continue with Her all the way into the future.

Back to the events of September, the Roman Catholic Church also most certainly entered a watershed period of its existence in the month. As the prophesied last Pope (see CA! Vol 16 Qtr 1) made his unprecedented historic visit to the United States, to meet the world’s number 1 champion of anti-christian values and worldview, many saw it as the birth of the alliance that would produce the two major players introduced in Revelations Chapter 13 verses 1 and 11.

Beyond giving moral legitimacy to the definitely anti-christian values and morality being purveyed by Mr Obama, the Pope went ahead to team up with the US president to push new economic and environmental agenda that is obviously directed at ushering in a one-world government. Frontline Republican President aspirant, and devout catholic Jeb Bush, had to quickly dissociate himself from his Pope, claiming “I don’t get economic policy from my bishops or my cardinals, or from my Pope....”

To the utter discomfort of many catholic faithfuls, the Pope has had to endorse transgenders, further liberalize the catholic contraption called marriage annulment (which the catholic church insists is different from divorce), and famously quipped: if two men are in committed [homosexual] relationship, who am I to judge? Indeed, some ultra-conservative catholics have insisted that given his disposition, Pope Francis should rather be called an anti-pope, meaning they don’t recognize him as the true head of their organization. In Vol 16 Qtr 1 and Vol 18 Qtr 2 we described the tight rope Pope Francis has set for himself to traverse. Trying to please everyone with his brand new concocted spirituality for the world, the Pope has steadily lost sympathy of both authentic catholics and authentic non-catholic Christians. Pope Francis is apparently unperturbed by this, however. On the other side of the divide, multitudes of people with no clear conviction on doctrinal matters - ranging from catholics, evangelicals and even atheists, are hailing him and embracing his new religion. These by far, form the majority!

With his visits to Cuba, the US, and the UN in September, the die was cast, and Pope Francis had to clarify certain previous double-talks and innuendoes (Jacob Prash calls it pilpul) attributed to him on these issues. The ball is now firmly in the courts of those catholics who strongly disagree to take their own actions. On the long run, the months ahead will most likely reveal that the Roman Catholic Church irreversibly entered a new world in September 2015. Please see <http://www.wnd.com/2015/09/obama-pope-lovefest-on-day-of-atonement/> for more indepth analysis of the Pope’s September visit to the United States.

And on the last day of the month, Wednesday 30th September, came the befitting climax on the struggle for world domination, as Israel’s mortal challenge began to take visible concrete form. This was the hoisting of the flag of the Palestinian State at the UN, following a resolution to that effect, earlier passed on September 10. As later events are revealing, this flag-hoisting is the cue for the unleashing of the 3rd intifada desperately pushing for an independent Palestinian State.

So, what really is the big deal about an emerging independent Palestinian State; and what is Israel’s problem with this?

As Bibi Netanyahu had said repeatedly, especially in the early days of his and Obama’s administrations (CA! Vol 12 No 4), the State of Israel would ordinarily welcome an independent Palestinian State co-existing peacefully side-by-side with her. Indeed when the UN originally gave the mandate in 1947, it was the Arabs who rejected a two –state solution. The Jews accepted the idea and formed the State of Israel on the strength of the mandate; and till today, the Arabs world is still opposed to that existence! (see CA! Vol 5 No 3)

The problem with an “independent” Palestinian State is, first of all, the irony of such an idea at a time like this. With even established Arab states like Syria, Iraq, Libya being shaken by ISIS (leading to those migration problem), what chance does a so-called “independent, secular, and democratic” Palestinian State stand of resisting an immediate take-over by Islamist militants who would see it as an incredible opportunity to get up-close to Israel and implement their avowed plan to wipe her off the map? Just like the situation in Gaza and elsewhere, we can expect Hamas, Hezbollah, and even Al Qaeda and ISIS to come calling once the State of Palestine is declared. Indeed nothing would unite these often fierce competitors more than an opportunity to come down and devour Israel.

Imagine East Jerusalem (the Temple Mount Area and all that) being under the control of Hamas or IS!

Israel has had to repeatedly depend on God for incredible miracles in its 67 years of modern existence – such as described in Vol 17 Qtr 3 during the last 50-day war with Hamas. With up-coming events, She would now require the mother of all miracles, nothing less in size than the parting of the sea, or having missiles rained down on enemies, . ➔ directly from heaven - as in the days of Moses and Joshua - to survive the next few years.

Yes, September 2015 has fully met the bill as a significant period laden with signs of the impending collapse of the existing world order, and the imminent birth of the much anticipated and talked about New World Order. The myriads of events lurking just round the corner, are bound to be nothing short of apocalyptic proportions. It's a clear mark of the end time, that despite the fact that none of these things were done in a corner, majority of people still could not see anything beyond personal economic challenges or some elements of local politics!

As the Lord warned, concerning the day His people would be taken out of the unfolding world order:

And as it was in the days of Noe, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man. They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all. Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded; But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all. Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed. In that day, he which shall be upon the housetop, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back. Remember Lot's wife. (Luk 17:26-32)

Prayer Charge for October 2015:

The World Today (by Steve Olumuyiwa)

As is obvious from the events of our present world, everything is shifting, changing—sin is increasing, iniquity is abounding, the persecution of Christians is increasing, the signs of the end are here...wars, rumours of war, natural disasters, uncommon diseases, refugee problems, terror cells and anti-Messiah networks are connecting and waxing strong, etc. Our world today is set to face unusual problems of biblical proportions. Although these problems are multiplying very quickly, it's an opportunity to bring the Good News of our Jesus Christ to the troubled world. This is the reason why the Lord is calling forth a strong UNIFIED GATE OF JOSEPH:

Birth pangs of a coming New Order:

Amidst all the largely man-made rumblings in the socio-economic order in our world, natural disasters also continue to wreck havocs at increasing intensity and frequency across different regions on the planet. Discerning people have sought to compare these to the birth pangs a woman experiences as her time of delivery draws near. Recent samples of Landslide, Rains, and Forest Fires are indicated below:

Google to make people “Godlike” by 2030

Google is taking MTN’s “a better me” promo to real crazy levels. While MTN suggests that with the fast broadband access they give their subscribers to the Internet, they could get knowledge and acquire new skills to produce better husbands, cooks, etc; Google has much grander even if similar, ideas.

Chris Matyszczyk of CNet summarizes the idea. “Kurzweil has a truly, madly, deeply optimistic view of who we will be when nanobots are implanted into our brains so we can expand our intelligence by directly tapping into the Internet.” (CNet, 01/10/15)

According to Google’s Director of Engineering, Ray Kurzweil, Google will make brain implants available by 2030 (that’s fifteen years away) which will seamlessly integrate the entire internet into the implantee’s regular thought processes. Voila, not just a “better” person, but actually a god! Watch this Washington Post video on Youtube where the Google boss concludes: “Evolution is a spiritual process and makes us more godlike,”

The comments by Judi McLeod of Canada Free Press are fantastic. She writes:

“Now that the UN is prepping to force a robot like lifestyle on unsuspecting humanity with its Agenda 21 morphed into Agenda 2030, Search Engine giant Google, will impose robot-hood on human beings on the same 2030 deadline.

“As if life isn’t tough enough with the cunning that comes with human DNA, what with terrorists posing as refugees, psychopaths in the workplace and politicians getting elected with the express intention of fundamentally transforming a nation, not to mention paying millions in taxpayer dollars to organizations who sell aborted baby parts on the open market, the future a mere 15 years from now will mean having to deal with the “artificial intelligence” of peers gone rogue that Google insists on calling “God-like.”

Concluding, McLeod quizzes:

“As far as is known no one on earth, no matter how far up the ladder of Google success they have climbed has ever met the Almighty. “So then how does Google get to define “God-like”?”

Has the Third Intifada began?

Consistent with the predictions of the recent Blood Moon tetrads, Israel is at press time (Oct 15) experiencing considerable stress, as local Palestinians (residents of East Jerusalem/Israeli citizens) have embarked on a wave of knife stabbings of soft targets (including old ladies and children) wherever they saw some opportunity. Instigated by half-truths(eg see this report) coming from the top hierarchy of the Palestinian Authority itself, young Palestinian boys, ladies and men are throwing away their own lives.

So far, all but 13 year old Ahmed Mansra have been killed in the course of their misguided mission not only to kill individual Jews but strike terror into the entire civil populace. Such was the violence that PM Netanyahu had to cancel his proposed trip to Germany in order to stay at home and address the dicey situation. As usual, the whole world seems pre-occupied with “more serious businesses”; and the usual totally bewildering charge is that Israel’s response to those killing her innocent citizens is “excessive and disproportionate.” As if it were some game being played! Not even the world’s number 1 diplomat, UN’s Ban Ki Moon was exempted in passing comments suggesting that both sides were equally culpable in the fray. The clear case here however, is of one group openly swearing to destroy the other from existence, forcing defensive moves as necessary from the other.

It’s hard to judge whether the apparent inability of the so-called friends of the Palestinians to call them to order is based on genuine fear of telling the truth, or part of the plan to continue using the hapless Palestinians as scapegoats to promote some New World Order agenda which requires that the region must continue to boil. To read the hour-by-hour developments on the unfolding uprising in Israel visit (Israel365). ## Glimpses of Weapons for World War III

With the frantic preparations for the long-awaited World War III among the superpowers, various shapes of never-before-seen weapons are emerging. In the opinion of many observers, WWIII has actually commenced on September 30 with the incursion of Russia planes and warships into Syria.. Others even suggest that Obama might be deliberately playing the fool (imagine the incredible Iran nuclear deal!) just to coax the Russia-Iranian coalition into war, while not yet fully prepared.

While all those might be mere unfounded theories, what is certain is that the Bible clearly predicts a coming Gog-Magog war, spearheaded by the King of the North (can only be Russia). The battle to be determined at the plains of Armageddon will be the final battle on earth; and it will feature the appearance of the Lord Jesus Christ Himself.

The outcome of the battle is described in the famous passage of Zechariah 14:12

“And this shall be the plague wherewith the Lord will smite all the nations who besieged Jerusalem; his flesh will waste away while he still stands on his feet; his eyes will waste away in their sockets, and his tongue shall waste away in his mouth.”

There has been keen interest on what kind of weaponry can produce this kind of results. Now the speculations are turning to reality with reports filtering in from both Russia and the USA. Please read the rest of this article on our Blog HERE.

TOPICAL ISSUE: September 2015

September 2015, much eagerly awaited on account of so many interesting events – real (eg the Blood Moon Tetrad) or rumoured (e.g. opening of inter-dimensional portals), has finally come and gone. But has it been only hypes or are there indeed reasons to hold it down as having been a tremendously important period for our generation?

Let's review the events expected to be associated with the Blood Moon Tetrad for instance. Based on historical precedents, the celestial Sign is expected to usher in marked trauma for Europe, Islam, Roman Catholicism, and the State of Israel. As penned by Steve Fletcher in his article, the History Of The 8 Blood Moon Tetrads Since Christ... And How We Can Know What Happens Next!:

“So, the pattern of all Tetrads shows... the Epic Battle for world domination between Israel, Islam, and the Roman Catholic Church has been played out at each and every turn. Based on this fact alone, we can know that this upcoming Tetrad will also be focused on this Epic Battle of the ages, the final battle for world domination... and for the inheritance of the Earth!

So, we make a quick excursion, to evaluate events pertaining to the identified main theatres of battle for world domination and see whether or not significant changes were introduced into our world in September 2015.

Beginning with Europe, no one could seriously doubt that the migrants issue has marked the beginning of a New Europe that is now irreversibly being formed. If we would be able to look back 200 years from now, it would be clear that September 2015 was a marked turning point for Europe. With hundreds of thousands (and still counting) mainly moslem Arabs pouring in into Europe, the demography, religion, and character of Europe is for ever irreversibly changed →page 4

EXHORTATION: How Much Time is Left?

Consider American basketball: there are those who play basketball almost like they're superhuman; it's unbelievable how good they are. It doesn't matter to them if there are two hours on the clock left to play the game or only 30 seconds. They play with such energy, vigor, and concentration that even though there are only ten seconds left in the game, they know that can make a difference. And as far as they're concerned, there might as well be an hour left in the game. Yet as soon as the final buzzer goes off, that's it; it's over.

That is how we should be: totally intent on what we're doing. It doesn't matter if there are three days left until Jesus comes or 300 years, we should be playing the game in the same way, with the same concentration, vigor, and intensity. But as soon as that buzzer goes off, that's it. We're done.

It's always ten minutes to midnight. In John's epistle he says it is the last hour (1 John 2:18); the idea in Greek is that time freezes. Israel is God's timepiece for the nations. Why did the early Christians say it was the Last Days? Let me explain. One day, Harold was watching rugby on television and Susan said, "When do you want your dinner?" It was then ten minutes to six so he said, "I want my dinner in ten minutes when the rugby game is over; the game ends at six o'clock." So Susan puts his dinner in the microwave and pushes the buttons. All of a sudden, at ten till six, there's an injury on the rugby field, and they stop the clock. The medics come out and say they can't move the guy without a doctor. The doctor comes out and says they need an ambulance because they have to move him a certain way. They can't do anything about it. The rest of the game is delayed. But how many minutes are left in the game? Ten. Ten minutes ago there were ten minutes left in the game, but the game time hadn't advanced from that point. There are always ten minutes left in the game, but at any time the clock can be started again, once the injured man is removed. This time is the time of the Gentiles; it is Israel that is God's timepiece.

The age of the church occurs, to the best of my understanding, between the 69th and 70th weeks of Daniel. Somehow the age of the Gentiles comes to a close, as it says in Luke 21:24 and Romans 11, and then the clock is started again. There are always ten minutes left in the game; time is frozen.

Therefore, it is always the "Last Days." So concerning the days of Noah, we have to warn the unsaved about their immorality, but we must also warn ourselves about becoming attached to this life. When you want to understand the days of Noah, you must go back and read the story of Noah.
